LEGAL HISTORY:

On November 12, 2004, the above-named was placed on supervised release for a period of two years. Special conditions included financial restrictions and disclosure, home detention for a period of 120 days, and cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service.

SUMMARY OF COMPLIANCE:

Since his release from custody, Dewight Francis Kramer, Sr. has been supervised by the United States Probation Office in the District of Arizona. According to the supervising probation officer, Mr. Kramer has complied with all conditions and special conditions of supervision and has not been involved in any further criminal activities. He has paid his $100 special assessment and $15,000 fine in full. It is the opinion of the supervising probation officer that Mr. Kramer has derived maximum benefit from supervision and is not in need of continued supervision.
